

Speaker: _____

Grade Points Earned: ____/10

P. Coughlan
SEC II Public Speaking

Date: _____ Outline submitted: _____

Start Time: _____ End Time: _____ Speech requirement: 5-7 mins.

Visual aid: required optional type used: _____

Scoring Rubric

Speech #2- Type: Informational with storytelling incorporated	10	8	6	4	2	0
The material chosen appeals to the audience, and reflects college level thought /vocab, and meets the speech's purpose.
The speech notes are formatted to enhance the delivery and organizational process.
The speech strongly informs about a person, place, event, moment in time, or idea through thematic storytelling.
A theme is smoothly integrated within the story and throughout the speech.
The speech opening grabs the audience's attention, provides insight into the story and is well thought out and appropriate.
The speech effectively sequences events so that they are easily followed by the audience.
The speech's ending has a strong sense of closure that clearly connects the story and theme to informing the audience.
The speech uses effective transitions and forecasting to assist the storytelling and development of the speech content.
The speaker's voice is clear and well projected. There is appropriate use of pause, inflection, volume, pronunciation, enunciation, and emotion with little stumble and/or audible pause. Vocal expression helps to clarify the meaning of the story and the informational content.
The speaker's eye contact is sincere, sustained, comfortable, well distributed and targeted as necessary (more than just glancing or head nod).
The speaker's body motion is appropriate and enhances the material and is poised and confidently considered more than just non-distractive.
The speaker's gestures reinforce and enhance the presentation and show deliberation and thoughtful placement.
The speaker's dress reinforces a professional presentation and/or speech topic. An attempt was clearly made at more than everyday student dress.
If applicable, a graceful recovery from problems, especially technological/environmental is made by the speaker.
The speaker maintains the allotted time requirements.
The speech represents the achievement of the course objectives.
The choice /use of visual aid is appropriate for the speaker's purpose.
The speaker submitted required paperwork/documentation. Required for this speech: an Outline, Notecards, and Rubric.
Comments and Overall Grade:						